

In Remembrance

In remembrance of me, eat this bread.

In remembrance of me, drink this wine.

In remembrance of me, pray for the time when God's own will is done.

In remembrance of me, heal the sick.

In remembrance of me, feed the poor.

In remembrance of me, open the door and let your brother in, let him in.

Take, eat and be comforted, drink and remember, too,

That this is my body and precious blood, shed for you, shed for you.

In remembrance of me, search for truth,

In remembrance of me, always love.

In remembrance of me, don't look above, but in your heart,

In your heart. Look in your heart for God.

Do this in remembrance of me.

You Feed Us, Gentle Savior

You feed us, gentle Savior, the bread that makes us whole, the wine of your compassion poured out into our soul.
The good of your own presence, your Spirit, strong, within,
the grace that heals us deeply and overcomes our sin.

You bind us, gentle Savior, and weave us into one,
one flesh and blood made holy, the Body of your Son.
We gather here in hunger, one hunger, all the same;
and with one grace you bless us together in his name.

You call us, gentle Savior, and send us in your name.
You teach and heal and show us how we can do the same.
So, strengthened by your Spirit and nourished by your grace,
we go to be your presence in love, in every place.

Disciples Gathered Gladly

Disciples gathered gladly to share the Seder meal;
they came all unsuspecting the grief they soon would feel.
Their Lord began to tell them his hour of death was near;
the one who would betray him could see his pathway clear.

Then as they sat at supper he blessed and broke the bread.
“This is my body broken for love of you,” he said.
“Take each of you a portion, remembering when you do,
as often as you eat it, my life laid down for you.”

And when the meal was finished, he poured a cup of wine.
“This cup is the new covenant and your salvation’s sign.”
Through my death are forgiven your sins, both great and small.
Drink, each of you, remembering my blood poured out for all.”

Gather Us In (v3)

Here we will take the wine and the water,
here we will take the bread of new birth,
Here you shall call your sons & your daughters
call us anew to be salt for the earth.

Give us to drink the wine of compassion,
give us to eat the bread that is you;
Nourish us well, and teach us to fashion
lives that are holy and hearts that are true.
