

Isaac Is Born

GENESIS 21:1-7

Sarah did have a child, just as God had promised. Abraham and Sarah waited a long time for God's promise to be fulfilled. I can imagine there were times they wondered if this would ever happen.

When Isaac was born, Sarah laughed. Her laughter was one of joy! The joy of having a son and the joy of God's promise that was kept.

Abraham and Sarah had faith. They believed their God was always present, even in times of doubt. They continued to hope even when it was hard to do so. They were so happy when Isaac was born.

WONDER:

Do you think your parents laughed with joy when you were born?
